OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

John Peyton, Mayor

April 11, 2010

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the citizens of the great City of Jacksonville it's an honor to welcome contestants, their families and friends, and everyone in attendance to the Miss & Teen Jacksonville USA Pageants. Today the lives of young women from our area will change as winners will go on to compete on the state level.

These young women have all worked extremely hard to ready themselves for this scholarship pageant. These talented contestants will use their poise and charm to convince judges that they are worthy of wearing the Miss Jacksonville USA and Miss Teen Jacksonville USA crowns.

I trust that everyone will have an enjoyable evening and that we will offer our support to the newly crowned Miss Jacksonville USA and Miss Teen Jacksonville USA as they go on to compete in the Florida competition later this year.

Sincerely,

MIRANDA WEBER

MISS JACKSONVILLE USA 2010

OUR EMCEE, MARI WILENSKY

Mari Wilensky has been involved in pageantry for many years. She was Miss Florida 2005 and was a Top Ten Finalist in the Miss America Pageant in 2006. She has also held titles in the USA pageant system and competed in the Miss Florida USA Pageant in the past. She has been very involved in her community and has had the opportunity to speak for many different philanthropic organizations. She was a speaker for the "Speaking on Women's Health" event in Jacksonville presenting on the topic of self-image, including eating disorder issues. She spoke at the University of Florida for "Step Up and Step Out", an event geared to help college women stand up for themselves and take a stand against peer pressure by having a positive self-image. Mari was born and raised in Jacksonville and is a graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences. She received her Master in Clinical Social Work from Florida International University and currently works as a School Social Worker in Tampa, Florida. She is also a very accomplished and talented vocalist.

OUR JUDGES

For over 25 years, Terry Jones has been a professional Magician and Comedian. Terry has performed as a Headline act for Carnival Cruise Lines and his performances have taken him to more than 10 different countries. A sought after performer, Terry has performed private shows for celebrities such as George Strait, Donnie Vanzant and the Trump family. When performing a show with Mickey Rooney and Ed McMahon, Ed described Terry as one of the most entertaining magicians he has worked with. Terry has been involved in pageants for 20 years. Terry has worked as a pageant coach, and has judged numerous Miss and Teen pageants in both the Miss America and Miss USA pageant systems. He has been married to the same beautiful lady, Erika, for the last 17 years. They have one child, Haley, who at 10 years old is already following in her Dad's performing footsteps, excelling at playing the trumpet.

Glorious Johnson, Jacksonville City Council Member, At Large Group 5, is a native of Jacksonville and taught many years in the Duval County School System. She received a very treasured award: an Honorary Life Membership from the Florida Parent/Teacher Association. Glorious received her Bachelor Degree from Jacksonville University in Music as a concert pianist, her first Master Degree was from Nova University in School Administration and Supervision; and her second Master Degree came from Teachers College/Columbia University majoring in Educational Administration/Organizational Leadership. She is the recipient of numerous awards and honors of many kinds relating to her various community and civic activities, which can be found at the City of Jacksonville's website (coj.net). Ms. Johnson is a well-known motivational speaker, having spoken to small and large groups ranging from 1 person to 53,000 people. She is a proud mom to her daughter, Stephanie. She has also served as a judge for several years for various pageants, including the Miss and Teen Jacksonville Pageants. She is in the process of writing her book about her experience in the political world. Hopefully, it will help others who have the desire to be a public servant.

Mary Ann Niles has lived in Jacksonville for the past twenty-eight years and is the owner of Mary A. Niles, CPA, LLC. She has been involved in dance and gymnastics for most of her life and attended the University of Florida on a full gymnastics scholarship. Mary was a member of the Parkette competition team in Allentown, Pennsylvania for six years and was Pennsylvania State champion for three years. She competed as an elite gymnast, the highest level, for four years and in 1975 was invited to the national training camp in preparation for the upcoming 1976 Olympics. While at Florida, she was captain of the Gator gymnastics team for two years during which time the Gators captured first place in the SEC championships, NCAA Southeast Regionals and AIAW National Championships. Mary currently lives in East Arlington with her husband, Ray. They have two children, Elizabeth, a recent graduate of Georgetown University who now lives in Boston and works for Teach for America, and a son Matthew, currently a student at Florida State College in Jacksonville.

OUR JUDGES

SUSAN SNODGRASS, M.D. is a Diagnostic Radiologist at the University of Florida and Shands Jacksonville and currently is the Chief of Women's Imaging and in that role is very involved in educating the public about Breast Cancer, having been a part of multiple Public Forums and given Multiple Breast Cancer Seminars. She has been involved in dance the majority of her life, having trained and performed with professionals from the American Ballet Theatre, the New York City Ballet, and the Atlanta Ballet Company. Dr. Snodgrass was the principal dancer for the Philippine Cultural Ballet Company while living in the Philippines and locally previously performed numerous principal roles in the Jacksonville Symphony Nutcracker. She toured the United States and Mexico with "Disney on Parade" as well as toured the Caribbean performing with the Southern Ballet Company. Dr. Snodgrass has served on numerous boards locally, including the Florida Theatre, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Board, the Advisory committees of the American Cancer Society and the RITA Foundation (Research Is The Answer), as well as the Jacksonville Dance Forum. She served as President of the Jacksonville Ballet Theatre and had been instrumental in bringing in principal dancers from the American Ballet Theatre for major performances to benefit the city and company. Dr. Snodgrass recently retired from teaching Advanced ballet and pointe at a local dance studio.

Michael Thompson has lived in Jacksonville for 36 years. Prior to moving to Jacksonville from North Carolina he served in the United States Coast Guard aboard the USCGC Eagle, a training ship at the USCG Academy. Upon separation from the Coast Guard he attended Louisburg Junior College, University of North Carolina, Wilmington, and graduated from Jones College, Jacksonville, with degrees in Communications and Business Administration. He served as Charter Organization Representative and Scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 212 in Jacksonville. For the past 25 years he has worked in the Optical industry for ABB-Concise, a contact lens distributor, as a Regional Sales Manager covering Georgia and North Florida. In his spare time he enjoys motorcycle riding, dancing, kayaking, and traveling with his wife Lynette. He has a son, Andrew, who achieved the rank of Eagle Scout and now resides in Ocala, FL and a daughter, Morgan, who is a hair designer in Mandarin.

Thank you to CPA Barbie Ratliff for her assistance with the tabulation of the scores!

Also, thank you to the Miss Florida USA Pageant for its support, especial Mr. Grant Gravitt.
Thank you for all of the guidance and encouragement.

The Ritz Theatre & LeVilla Museum celebrates the rich legacy of the African American community that thrived in LeVilla for more than 100 years. The theatre and museum are revered as the premiere cultural institution in Jacksonville, Florida, showcasing African and African American art and history exhibitions, music, drama, storytelling and poetry. The theatre showcases an array of exciting musical and theatrical performances. The museum permanent collection houses an exhibition of African American history of Northeast Florida, featuring a salute to native sons James Weldon Johnson and John Rosamond Johnson. The gallery showcases a changing array of fine and modern African and African American art and historical exhibitions.
