HOW & WHEN TO GET REQUIREMENTS TURNED IN

All paperwork, photos, entry fees, ads, etc. can be turned in at any time on weekdays between 10 AM and 5 PM at the pageant's office, located at 817 Willow Branch Avenue, Jacksonville, FL 32205 (904-384-3578). However, it would be helpful if you called in advance so we know that you are coming by (so we don't step out of the office and miss you). All requirements must be into the directors by no later than February 5, 2014 in order to be included in the program book. If you wish to be a contestant, but cannot be fully signed up by that deadline, please contact us so we will try to work with you regarding getting your requirements in, but you may not make the program book deadlines. We will try to add a special insert to our program book if necessary for late entries. If you wait until too late to enter, there is only a certain amount of flexibility we have before we have to cut off our entries.

The time frames above are open time frames to give contestants the option of dropping of their paperwork in person, to meet the directors, and to ask any questions they may have. However, you do not have to wait until the deadline to drop off paperwork and requirements. You may do so by mail at any time, or can come by the pageant office during weekdays as mentioned above.

It is always helpful to the directors for you to turn in your requirements sooner than later. Early birds are always appreciated. At the pageant, we give away a "Directors Award" to the contestant who gets everything in timely, quickly, completely, and without reminders and follow up. Be a perfect example of what a contestant should be, and you will make the directors very happy!!! :)

If you have any questions about the sign-up process, the requirements, the pageant, or its schedule, do not hesitate to contact us prior to the requested deadline. Also, be sure to check the pageant's websites regularly for updates leading up to the big event!

LOOKING FORWARD TO HAVING YOU AS A PART OF THE PAGEANT!

They are attractive and poised women with a confident and commanding presence. They are intelligent, beautiful, and are independent and eloquent communicators. Miss Jacksonville USA and Miss Jacksonville Teen USA are ideal leaders, take pride in their health and physical fitness, and are involved with their community.

As Miss Jacksonville USA or Miss Jacksonville Teen USA, you will represent the Jacksonville/First Coast area as an official ambassador. You will gain much through the rich personal experience of meeting and associating with many exciting people throughout the pageant year.

The Miss & Teen Jacksonville USA Pageant is a part of the Miss Florida USA and Miss USA Pageants. You will represent the Jacksonville area at the Miss Florida USA Pageant or Miss Florida Teen USA pageant to be held later in 2014. The winner of the state pageants compete in the Miss USA Pageant and the Miss Teen USA Pageant. As you consider this opportunity today, remember, "YOU could be the next Miss Jacksonville USA or Miss Jacksonville Teen USA, Miss or Teen Florida USA, and even Miss or Teen USA." It's all up to you!

QUALIFICATIONS

To enter our local pageant, contestants must meet certain basic requirements and agree to abide by all of the rules of the local, state, and national pageants now in effect or announced hereafter. To be a contestant in the Miss or Teen Jacksonville USA Pageant, please refer to the Rules and Regulations sheets regarding all age, residency, and other requirements. Should you win the local pageant, you must make yourself available for public appearances during your reign and for competing in the state pageant.

COMPETITION

The Miss Jacksonville USA and Miss Jacksonville Teen USA Pageants will be held at 4:00 PM on Saturday, March 1st, 2014, at the Wilson Center for the Arts, Florida State College at Jacksonville, South Campus, in Jacksonville, Florida. There will be rehearsals starting that morning up until the pageant, see separate schedule. Contestants will participate in a simple production number to start off the pageant and introduce themselves. Contestants will compete in the following competitions at the Saturday pageant: swimsuit, evening gown, and on-stage interview. All contestants will supply their own wardrobe for the production number and all phases of the competition.

REGISTRATION

Contact the pageant today! Fill out an application, provide your birth certificate and proof of residency, and contact the Directors: Kevin & Cammie Sanders at (904) 384-3578. You may also contact the pageant through its email address: MissJacksonville@bellsouth.net to request paperwork via email, or when the paperwork is posted to the website, you can print up all paperwork from the pageant's website (www.JacksonvillePageants.com) and get signed up that way.

HOW TO GET STARTED

MEETINGS

If any special meetings, rehearsals or orientations are offered, a schedule of such will also be posted to the website when established. Meetings, if any, prior to the pageant will be for informational purposes, answering questions, and for turning in paperwork and other requirements. A parent may attend with the contestant, but please only one additional person other than the contestant, due to possibly limited space. If a traveling companion is not necessary to accompany you, such is recommended. All contestants should regularly check the local pageant's website (www.JacksonvillePageants.com) leading up to the pageant for all last minute updates.

The pageant in the past has had a rehearsal the day prior to the pageant, but we are combining the rehearsal and pageant into one day this year. The rehearsal the morning of the pageant is for the purpose of learning any production number or introduction positions on stage, learning walking patterns for swimsuit and gown competitions, and teaching the planned lay-out of the pageant itself. Failure to attend the rehearsal may result in being left out of the production number, and possibly the pageant depending on circumstances. Please clear your calendar for all day on March 1, 2014 so you can attend all required events on that day.

YOUR YEAR AS MISS OR TEEN JACKSONVILLE USA

As a winner of the Miss Jacksonville USA and Miss Jacksonville Teen USA pageant, you will serve for approximately one year as an "ambassador" for the city at social, civic, and community events on a volunteer basis. Selected members of the pageant committee will help to coordinate your preparation for the Miss Florida USA Pageant in July of 2014 (or Miss Florida Teen USA Pageant in October 2014).

MISCELLANEOUS

PLATFORM / COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

A platform or community involvement is not a requirement, but could be most helpful to a successful year as a titleholder. You should consider being affiliated with a charity or community cause that you feel strongly about. It is best to choose a platform or cause which the contestant is actively involved in and to which she has a strong personal commitment.

SPONSOR(S) / ADVERTISER(S)

Each contestant is requested to seek at least one (1) sponsor page which will be placed in the official pageant program book. There is a special rate for a contestant's first full page ad if received by the appropriate deadline. The full size ad page, if used as a sponsorship page for the contestant, will feature the contestant's photograph and recognition of the sponsor (see sponsorship paperwork for costs of sponsor page and for the benefits of obtaining a sponsor). This sponsor page can list more than one business or individual (preferably not over 3) who would like to "honor" the contestant. The pageant will set up this "sponsorship" page. For all other ad sales, you will need to submit camera ready ads. A non-camera-ready ad requires an additional set-up fee of $25.00. If you have a camera ready ad already set up on your computer, it is best to email it to the directors so that it will be its best resolution for the program book. More information is available by contacting the Directors.

INTERVIEWS

The interview competition can be in the form of a private interview before a panel of judges, or it can be on-stage questions at the pageant competition itself. This year, we will be limiting our interview to the stage during the pageant. You will speak briefly (30 seconds or less) to introduce yourself and a few key facts that you would want the judges and audience to know about you. This is similar to the introduction you might give if you actually went into a panel-styled interview. After your own prepared and planned introduction, you will pull a question from a bowl and answer it on-stage.

Questions could be on national, state, or local topics, as well as current issues facing your age group. It could be general questions about your plans, goals, platform, beliefs, etc. Questions could also be "qualifying" type questions such as "Why do you think you would make a good titleholder for this pageant?" Review our various sample questions on our website for practice. Try to be well-spoken, confident, and succinct (don't ramble). Also, try to interject your personality if possible into your response. If this is worked into the pageant toward the beginning of the show, you will do your on-stage interview in your opening number outfit. If this is worked into the pageant toward the end of the show, you will most likely do your on-stage interview at the conclusion of your evening gown walk. Remember, you are trying to convince the Judges that you are ready for and right for the job as the Jacksonville USA titleholder!

PRODUCTION NUMBER

We have not finalized our theme just yet this year, so the opening/production number outfit has not yet been determined. We usually go with some kind of cocktail dress, but that is still to be announced. It is possible that you may be asked your on-stage question in this outfit (unless on-stage questions are asked after the gown competition). Once the theme is determined, the opening number outfit will be announced to all contestants. You should know at least 60 days in advance. Be sure to check back with the pageant to inquire about this if you do not get a notice or email in this regard. In the production number/opening, wear your hair exactly the way you want it for the swimsuit competition as that will most likely be the next category and will be a quick change. We have fabulous dancers that come in to perform for this opening number, so what you are taught is very simple and very minimal.

SWIMSUIT

The Swimsuit Competition represents how you maintain good physical fitness. The judges will be looking for overall proportion of figure, beauty of face and figure, walk, poise, grace, and confidence. Give the Judges your best model walk (smooth, not bouncy). This pageant encourages the contestants to keep their costs down and to buy "off-the-rack" swimsuits. One-piece or two-piece swimsuits are acceptable, but two-piece swimsuits are more the norm in USA Pageants. The swimsuit should be a solid color. It can have some slight bling or sparkle to it as an accent. Clear or skin-toned shoes are recommended, but sleek and stream-lined heels are nicer for swimsuit than big clunky shoes. String bikinis and thongs not accepted. Please select suits with appropriate coverage.

EVENING WEAR

The Evening Wear Competition is your chance to show off your grace and glamour. Judges are looking for personality, sense of confidence, stage presence, walk, posture, and beauty. This pageant encourages the contestants to keep their costs down and to buy "off-the-rack" dresses (as opposed to custom made to order) whenever possible to reduce expenses on the contestant at this local level. Once you win our pageant and are headed to the state competition, you will be advised by your directors if another gown would be recommended for the Florida USA pageants. Feel free to contact the pageant if you need some guidance as to where to find a gown in your price range.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Depending on the support for the pageant by the contestants, audience members, supporters, sponsors, and advertisers, the Miss & Teen Jacksonville USA Pageant plans to extend some scholarships to its winners and possibly finalists. This is to be determined closer to the pageant. Your support of our endeavors will help to make this possible. At the 2014 pageant (held February 2013), Miss Jacksonville USA was awarded a $1,000.00 scholarship and Miss Jacksonville Teen USA was awarded a $250.00 scholarship, plus the finalists were awarded scholarships too.

AWARDS AND GIFTS

As our local titleholder, you will receive the official local USA preliminary crown and a banner. Trophies will also be awarded to the finalists. (All scholarships, awards, prizes, and gifts are subject to final confirmation and will be officially announced in the program book and/or on stage.) Your entry into the state pageant is also covered by the NFSO, Inc. Prizes will be given to you periodically throughout your reign, and will not all be presented immediately upon your win. Scholarships will need to be utilized or redeemed during your reign (a one year time period from when it was awarded) so plan accordingly to request such within the guidelines of the scholarship rules.

MORE INFO:

Be ready for rehearsal to start at the Wilson Center by 9:30 AM. If the tech crew is still setting lights or stage set, be patient. We'd rather wait on the Wilson Center crew, than for contestants who are not ready or on time.

The rehearsal is not a dress rehearsal, so we will not be changing into wardrobe so that the rehearsal will go smoothly. Feel free to show the directors your wardrobe at any other previous time. You are suggested to wear the shoes at rehearsal that you will be wearing in the competition.

During the break time prior to the pageant, you should not leave the theatre. You are responsible for your own preparation, hair, and make-up. If you have a hair or make-up person, they will need to meet with you prior to you arriving at the theatre. No coaches or assistants will be allowed back-stage. Bring chargers to play on your phone or Nintendos if you get bored during the break (dressing room only)!

We plan on getting a food sponsor for lunch, but will advise if such is not the case so that you can bring your lunch to rehearsals. Food and drink are not allowed in the Theatre area. (Or keep water bottles and small snacks in your dressing room, but don't make a mess!)

All contestants (Miss & Teen) are requested to stay for a group picture before leaving. Then photos will be taken of all finalists and award winners. Then photos will be taken with the Judges and titleholders. Then photos can be taken with family members if there is time. Once you have completed your photos, please return to the dressing room to gather your things. We need to leave the Wilson in good condition, as when we arrived.

If you win, you will need to make an appointment with the directors within the first week to sign the titleholder paperwork and receive some initial prizes. If you are from out of town, please advise if you need to meet with the directors after the pageant or during the pageant weekend before you leave.

If you need a room for an overnight stay, contact the director for our hotel contact.

Little Sister photos will be taken by the photographer during that portion of the pageant when they are crowned, and they do not have to stay after the pageant for photos.

MAKE YOURSELF A CHECK-LIST OF ALL WARDROBE ITEMS YOU NEED. Include the garment, undergarments, shoes, jewelry, hair accessories, make-up, etc. Use this list as you are packing for the day. If you forget something, there will not likely be time to go home and get it based on the above schedule. Have a back-up plan in case anything goes wrong with your planned wardrobe (back-up dress or swimsuit in your car, sewing kit, extra safety pins, clips, etc.).

 Cell phones should not be used during rehearsal time, keep them in the dressing rooms. You may turn them on during the break (the time frame after rehearsal and before the pageant). Keep them off or in the dressing room during the rehearsal and the pageant itself. Encourage your guests to keep their ringers and beepers off in the audience.

 Any further questions? Contact us at missjacksonville@bellsouth.net or clsanders@bellsouth.net.

BEST WISHES TO YOU IN THE COMPETITION!

For “Miss” Jacksonville USA Pageant - For the Pageant Directors / Pageant File

You may submit your own introduction for the Swimsuit and Evening Gown competitions to be announced on stage while you are modeling. Please use the following guidelines when determining your introductions.

Swimsuit Competition

This competition is somewhat fast paced, so your introduction should be somewhat short. Just submit your name, contestant # ____ (if known), your year in school (Soph., Senior, etc.), and the school you are currently attending. If you are in college, list your major or degree. If you are in high school/grade school, name one activity that you are interested in or one accomplishment at school. If you are not currently in school, you can indicate that you are a graduate and list what you are doing now (work, etc.).

EXAMPLE – HIGH SCHOOL/GRADE SCHOOL:

“Lisa Lane, Contestant # ____, is a Senior at Forrest High School, and is the current President of the Forrest High School Baking Club.”

EXAMPLE – COLLEGE STUDENT:

“Sally Sue, Contestant # ____, is a Junior at Jacksonville University where she plans on obtaining a Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration.”

EXAMPLE – OUT OF SCHOOL:

“Jesse Jane, Contestant # ____, is a graduate of FSU, with a Bachelor’s Degree in Music, and is now a music teacher at Southside Elementary School.”

Your Swimsuit Introduction:

Evening Gown Competition

This competition is slower and more graceful, so your introduction should be a little more serious and include your educational, career, or other life goals or ambitions. You could also list a great accomplishment or award, or mention a platform or charity that you are significantly involved in. You can also mention your parents/guardians.

EXAMPLES:

“Lisa Lane, Contestant # ____, is an advocate of literacy and speaks regularly at various schools about learning to read and staying in school. Her “Don’t Drop Out of School, Don’t Drop Out of Life” platform is really getting the message of many local students. She is the proud daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Lane.”

“Sally Sue, Contestant # ____, is a sophomore at the University of North Florida and plans on graduating with a degree in Nursing. At this time, she does a great deal of volunteer work at the hospital, but she hopes to one day actually run the hospital. She is the first sophomore to receive the school’s Nursing Student of the Year.”

“Jesse Jane, Contestant # ____, will be graduating from Wolfson High School this summer, and plans to serve as a counselor at a local camp for underprivileged children. She hopes to start college in the fall and continue her activities as a spokesperson for _____ (cause).”

Your Evening Gown Introduction:

The pageant reserves the right to shorten or amend your introductions if necessary. If you do not turn in your own introductions, the pageant will determine what is read about you based on the information sheet you turn in.*
