Northeast Florida's Premier Local Miss USA Preliminary

February - June 2012

2013 JACKSONVILLE USA TITLEHOLDERS CROWNED ON FEBRUARY 26, 2012

Ashley & Elise crowned
Jacksonville USA
Titleholders

Twelve stunning and amazing contestants vied for the titles of Miss Jacksonville USA 2013 and Miss Jacksonville Teen USA 2013 on Sunday, February 26, 2012, at 4:00 PM at the Wilson Center on the South Campus of FSCJ. The competition was sponsored and presented by the North Florida Scholarship Organization, Inc., a non-profit 501(c)(3), tax exempt, scholarship organization. This competition was an official preliminary pageant to the Miss Florida USA and Miss Florida Teen USA competitions. This event marked eleven years of USA pageantry for this local Jacksonville pageant, the longest running preliminary competition under the Miss Florida USA umbrella. The Judges consisted of: Terry Jones, Sherri Leaf Owens, Candace Cragg Osteen, Kim Perry, and Kelly Wagner.

The pageant had a fun sports theme entitled "Jacksonville's Championship of Pageantry." The contestants performed in front of a festive goal-post, decorative megaphones, and large letters that spelled out "JAX USA" in red, white, and blue. The opening number contained musical selections including Tribal Dance, Ready for This, and Simply Irresistible. The opening number included the 12 participants, dancers from the Scott Jones School of Dance, the outgoing titleholder, Emily Cunard, Miss Jacksonville Teen USA 2012, and her Jax USA Little Sister, Ciara Sanders.

The Miss & Teen contestants competed in the categories of Interview, Swimsuit, and Evening Gown competitions, although the interview competition was held the day before, so the audience did not get to see that part. The event was highlighted with performances to include a dance by Emily Cunard, Miss Jax Teen USA 2012; a vocal performance from FSCJ Professor Hansford Joiner, several dance performances by the Scott Jones Dancers, and a solo en pointe by Anjelica Jones. There was even a ceremony to crown new Jacksonville USA Little Sisters: Ciara Sanders, Kayden Sanders, Olivia Overstreet, and Jadyn Hamilton. Emily Cunard also shared a heart-felt farewell speech with the audience. The emcees included past Miss Jax USA 2010, Miranda Weber, and Tess Wilensky, who held the title of National American Miss Teen in 2009.

All contestants, regardless of the results, won various gifts/prizes. The new Miss Jacksonville USA 2013 received a significant prize package valued around $4,000.00, which included her new crown, banner, trophy, flowers, entry to the state pageant, as well as a $1,000.00 scholarship, and unbelievable prizes. Miss Jacksonville Teen USA 2013 also did well receiving a prize package also valued over $3,500.00, in which she also received a crown, banner, trophy, flowers, entry to the state pageant, a $250.00 scholarship, and a long list of gifts as well. At the end of the competition, the pageant's exciting results were as follows:

Miss Jax Teen USA Meets Michelle Obama and Speaks with Ellen Degeneres!

On April 12th, 2012, Elise Lobb attended an event for girls of military families, held at NAS Jax. The guest speaker was the First Lady, Michelle Obama! Elise was selected to be on stage in the front row with Ms. Obama. As an added surprise, Ellen Degeneres addressed the girls via video feed from the Ellen Show. Elise got to talk to Ellen directly and share her experiences as a military daughter.

Ellen and JC Penney donated $250.00 gift cards to all of the ladies there for prom wear. Elise was asked to go to JC Penney for her shopping spree and such was aired on Ellen's show the following Monday.

Elise had a great experience meeting Michelle Obama and Ellen Degeneres, and a video of her little adventure is on our pageant's YouTube channel: <http://www.youtube.com/user/MissJaxUSA>. Check it out!

New Venue for the Jacksonville USA Pageant Found at the Wilson Center

The Jacksonville USA competition has found a new home! We moved to the amazing Wilson Center for the Arts on the South Campus of Florida State College at Jacksonville. They have such a beautiful facility there and great capacity for our tremendous crowd that showed up this year to watch our 2013 contestants. It was truly a great venue not only for the pageant going crowd, but it was very well received by our contestants and entertainers as the back stage area and the dressing rooms were bright and spacious. The judges and crew enjoyed the green room for relaxing and snacks. We look forward to returning to the Wilson Center again on Saturday, February 23rd, 2013 for the 2014 competition! Mark that date for next year, and if you are a potential contestant, get signed up early for the best entry fee rates.

Jacksonville USA Little Sisters

The Miss Universe Organization has a special program for all young ladies that are too young to compete for a Miss or Teen title. They are called USA little sisters. Our local pageant has a fabulous group of Jacksonville USA Little Sisters this year, and they are in for a fun-filled year! This is a mentoring program for the Miss and Teen titleholders to take these little sisters under their wings and be a role model for them. Our Jax USA Little Sisters will be involved in some of the titleholders' appearances this year, and they will be announced onstage at the state pageant's preliminary competition night in Hollywood, Florida. There is no competition involved, so if you know a young lady that is interested in being a little sister for next year, please check out our website at www.JacksonvillePageants.com for info on how to make that a reality! Here are our lovely Jacksonville USA Little Sisters for 2012-2013!
